

SEPTEMBER 2020

Children's Museum of Northern Nevada

Dear friends of CMNN, as the summer winds down and we move into autumn, we continue to monitor changing health guidelines in response to COVID-19. This ensures the well-being of our patrons and staff, and provides the safest possible Museum experience. You will find increased cleaning procedures, hand sanitizer throughout the Museum, and plexiglass shields at our front desk. Additionally, we facilitate physical distancing by operating at a reduced capacity. Our safety plan and health policy can be accessed on our website. The Museum is still open by reservation only, so be sure to secure your reservation by going to cmnn.org or call (775) 884-2226 to book your two hour time slot.

As the safety of our members, visitors, and staff is our top priority, we respectfully request that visitors not visit the Museum if they are exhibiting any symptoms outlined in our health policy. Should Museum staff observe visitors that are sick or exhibiting symptoms, they may request them to leave the Museum. The Museum will then provide a free return pass for your child.

NEW

Birthday Parties!

We are now offering space for birthday parties every day of the week from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. Our Birthday Room has been remodeled and we are thrilled to welcome you back for your own unique celebration. The Museum will provide napkins, paper plates, forks, and tables covered in paper with crayons for your enjoyment. The birthday party package covers 10 children. Additional party guests are welcome for an added cost, but the party may not exceed 30 people. Finally, the birthday group has private access to the entire Museum!

Important news

Thank you to our sponsors for their support in helping sustain the Museum's operations and public programming. The generosity of The Martha Berger Trust, Pizza Factory, Personnel Plus, and Click Bond as well as other donors has enabled us to continue providing a play-based learning environment. In other news, we are very happy to welcome Charlie Blim to our Board of Directors. We value his expertise and insight into the arts in our community. He is a major artist advocate and the owner of Charlie B Gallery. The gallery was recently used for the filming of "Once Upon a Main Street" where a piece from his Vasefinder Museum is featured. Welcome, Charlie!
